

Come to me

*Caracas, Venezuela
March 27, 1963*

My children, the moment is approaching, a terrible and decisive moment for humanity. Yes, it will be terrible, as it has not been since the beginning of creation. But what a beautiful ending! The victory is assured, but how many souls are lost and will be lost! because the confusion will also be terrible.

This is why my voice is raised in a cry of supplication: I need souls, transmitters of my LIGHT, to serve as beacons in the hour of darkness!

Little children, without me, you can do nothing. But I also tell you: without your collaboration, I can do nothing for you.

Come to me in this hour in which all your hopes are in danger of being shattered because everywhere, and in all the promises, you have been let down!

Come to me all you who have searched for a true way and have not found it! I am the only way that will lead you to the Father.

Come to me all you who have searched for the TRUTH and have not found it! I am the TRUTH that resides in the Father.

Come to me all you who have searched for LIFE and find yourselves facing death! I am the true LIFE, and whoever comes to me will not know death.

I am who am, from the beginning to the end. No one came before me, nor will anyone come after me, because I am the eternal envoy of the Father, the expected one of all times, the God of Israel, who says now as He did then: I am at the door and am calling. Blessed are they who hear my voice and put my words into practice.

For the good of all

*Carrizal, Venezuela
March 10, 1987*

For the good of all
and for the sake of all, leave everything and everyone, and surrender yourself completely to Me alone,
so that I may “do” for all and be, for the sake of all, ALL.

In my Acting, nothing is fixed

*San Diego de los Altos, Venezuela

The human being, in himself, is not perfect; his perfection consists in achieving a balance between the direct influence of my Active Force and Its action through the circumstances that I myself present. Hence the importance of his being attentive, not only to my Presence but also to my Assistance in every circumstance of daily life. I Am who AM. The human being, in himself, “is” not, but he grows in “being” the more he inserts himself in my Being, by means of the circumstances that I myself present to him through life, which is the way of approach between my Being and the “non-being.”

You are the one who will understand the essence, the profound meaning of what you perceive in my Acting, and, with your words, you will make it accessible to those who cannot understand it now; you will certainly understand, because you have begun to live in my Presence and Assistance. I Am, and you, as you grow in “being,” will transmit to my others and your others what you grasp through my direct influence; in this way I will be ALL in you and in everyone, to the extent that each one identifies himself, in his life, with my active Presence in him, which is my Assistance.

Egoism is the great impediment, because when the human being gets detained in himself, as a “self,” he intercepts the dynamism of the liberty, which of its essence is oriented to its Being and not to the “self.” To be free is to flow with life in accordance with the circumstances that, in justice, make room for my Assistance, within this process of becoming that has been provoked by the free creatures who, affirming themselves in themselves, have opposed my direct influence; this is why the human being tends to fix everything. In my Acting, nothing is fixed; everything happens in a constant, unrepeatable dynamism; even though some circumstances are apparently the same, they are always different from one another.

The liberty, the human being’s faculty to choose his “being” and “acting,” is the flow of Life itself, which IS Myself; when the human being gets stuck in himself, he ceases to “be” and to “act”; there appears the self, which “is” not; this is death, because the flow of life has been interrupted.

Those of you who are in syntony with my Grace will be “taken away”

San Diego de los Altos, Venezuela

For you this year will come to an end when the time of my Grace ends; you will then no longer be in this world because you form part of my Grace, and when She will be withdrawn from this world,
you too will go with Her,
because those of you who are in syntony with my Grace,
with my Spirit,
in every part of the Universe,
will be “taken away”
and will form part of a new life,
not of a new year;
you will form part of the Kingdom of my Father, which is Eternal.
Now you will live in this time of waiting, for the sake of other people, who, though belonging to my Kingdom, are still missing

and must be rescued.

Live in silence,
in self-interiorization,
in a constant self-surrender for those who are missing.

Abide in unity with my Spirit, who will assist you at every moment.

Trust, trust, trust!
I have overcome the world,
and you, with my Grace,
will also overcome it.
